DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

B) Species of Figure 2.

2. The Species are distinct each from the other because: Species of Figure 1 disclose a means to operable to subtract an error voltage signal from a voltage signal containing a voltage error to provide a corrected voltage signal for use or measurement by an unspecified device; Figure 2, the voltage error signal is inverted by means of an amplifier having an amplification of minus one and the inverted error signal added to the voltage signal containing the voltage error, to provide the corrected voltage signal. They are two separate inventions therefore; they are required difference search strategies.

3. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call was made to Paul A. Ragusa on December 27, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
